Only workloads that write the lookup index can gain.
A/B/C/F leave it empty (updates are HOT, key unchanged)
workload
A B
C
D
F skew 1.2
skew 0.99
skew 0.5
skew 0.0
A, B, C, F: L0 empty or one page, ratio 0.88-1.08 (noise)
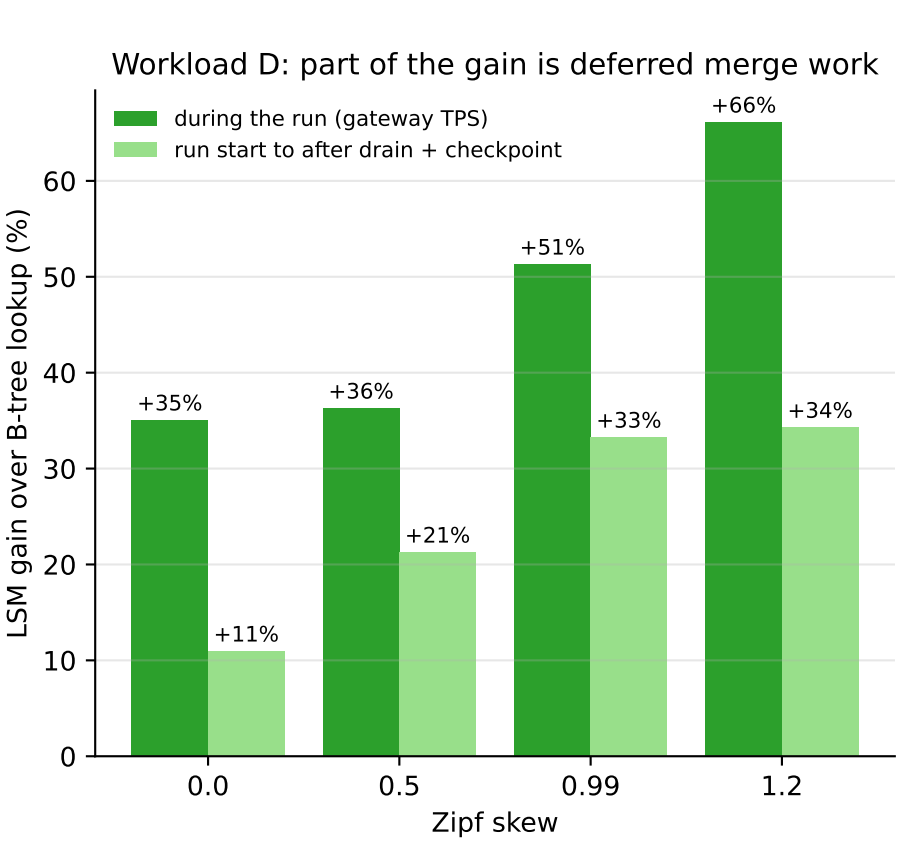
TPS Merkle + LSM / Merkle + B-tree
Lookup-index growth during the run: max L0 + L1 above empty (KiB)



Workload D: part of the gain is deferred merge work during the run (gateway TPS)
run start to after drain + checkpoint +35%
+11%
+36%
+21%
+51%
+33%
+66%
+34%
LSM gain over B-tree lookup (%)
Zipf skew